

Maintaining our Sectors' Reputation – The Good Sams Foundation's process for complaints regarding another NGOs

We believe that the best ways for a charity to build trust in our not-for-profit sector are transparency, integrity, reputation and strong outcomes.

The Good Sams Foundation commits to the principles of fairness and co-operation across our sector, and we will not damage the reputation of another NGO to advantage ourselves.

If you have a concern regarding another NGO please escalate it to the Executive Director who will then – if it is well-founded – refer it to the ACNC and/or ACFID.
